It is therefore important for your permission to have been granted before the image of your child can be taken either through photography or filming. The Data Protection Act states that every person over the age of 12 years owns their own image and therefore where your child is over the age of 12 that child must consent to their image being taken. Should permission not be granted then every effort will be made to ensure that their image is not taken. This may mean removing the child from a group, display or play. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I am over 12 years of age and I give/do not give* my permission for my image to be taken either by photography or filming Signature _____ Date _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • delete as appropriate
